

Skegness Grammar School

CEAIG STRATEGY

Impartial, high quality CEAIG, raising aspirations
and inspiring students within our Multi-Academy Trust
We are working towards Career Mark status

Mr Jay
Sturman
Designated
CEAIG Lead

- Awareness and self-evaluation using 'Fast Tomato' platform
- Exposure to different routes and opportunities
- Signposting information and guidance

- Skills and employability
- Action plan development
- Building self-awareness
- Experience of different routes and opportunities

- Putting plans into place (applications, interviews, OXBRIDGE etc)
- Enhancing skills for employability/HE
- Decision making
- Relevant Work Experience

Post-16 planning and visits from other providers regarding vocational learning and apprenticeships. CV, application and interview information. Parental engagement and questionnaires to identify students that need extra support. Individual interviews on request or referral. University and employer interactions

Y12-13

Building blocks to Outstanding CEAIG

Y10-11

Post A-level research and planning including alternative routes to university. Information about student finance, gap years and studying abroad. UCAS support for students and parents and exposure to universities and

Researching and creating job descriptions. Investigating employability skills. Online career guidance software exposure and training. GCSE options support and information. Labour market information and local employer interaction

Y8-9

Self-awareness, evaluation of likes and dislikes. Awareness of strengths/weaknesses and preferences. Aims and action planning. Signposting for information and guidance

Y7

LincHigher Partners

EBP

Alumni Network

National Careers Service

Local Colleges

Local Employers

CragRats

Complete Careers

Fast Tomato

DRET contacts

Learning Performance

Learn by Design

Smallpiece Trust

RAF

ASK

University partners and facilitators

Brightside

Positively MAD

